Dear Companion in Kilowatts:

I find myself in the extremely embarrassing position of not knowing your name, and no reasonably expedient way of discovering it. Hence the salutation, and with it, my apology for this oversight.

If you may recall, last year a group from WDBS journeyed to Northampton to present a night of broadcasting over WCSR. Another year has brought the suggestion that turnabout is fair play, hence this letter is in essence an invitation to any of your staff that would be interested in participating in an evening of broadcasting here at WDBS.

I realize that exams are in the offing, with Carnival following close on its heels. However, anytime during the latter part of February or early March would seem a logical time for such an exchange of talent.

Last year Friday night was chosen, to gain a maximum audience and interest, and it seemed a fair selection. I hasten to add that any girl's inclined to make it a weekend would be certainly well taken care of by our staff, as to dates, lodging, and so forth. I am sure, also, that adequate transportation from Northampton and back could be arranged.

Please let me know just how you and your staff feels about this, and we of WDBS look forward to seeing many of your WCSR'ers in the near future.

Yours very truly,
